 A Minister's Walking Stick.

[Original.] "Oh, Peter, what is the matter?" Peter, pale as a ghost, tried to speak, but falled.

"Tell me, Peter; tell me!" "Death!"

When Peter Marienless found voice to speak he said that he could tell no one of his trouble, but Anna Orloff was his sweetheart, and they were to have been married in a month, so at last she drew QUESTION CITIZENSHIP his secret. He was a member of a band of Russian terrorists and had been ordered to assassinate Minister Alexis Enobikeff, who had more pa- If He Has Been Naturalized or Has Taktriots' blood on his hands than any of the czar's officials. This meant surer death to Peter than to the minister, for the attempt might not be successful, whereus, whether he succeeded or not, he would undoubtedly be struck down by the guards or, if taken alive, be executed. If he refused to do the deed he would be killed by the band from which he had received the order. "There must be some way out of this," said Anna, "We must set our wits to work."

by bomb, and that'- father is an inventor. He has invented N. H. many strange devices, but nothing that has thus far given us money. Perhaps he may now invent some safe way of of extraditing Paul E. Roy from France that, and it is impossible to get near lieved here, depends on whether Roy women who have been troubled with enough to these people to polson them, had legally declared his intention of displacements, inflammation, ulcera-Besides, they are too careful of what becoming an American citizen. Nothing tion, fibroid tumors, irregularities, of her trouble and asked him to concentrate his mind on some method of ridding Russia of the tyrant that would vesterday that if Roy had been natural not reveal the perpetrator of the deed ized in this country, or had officially the inventor adored his daughter and declared his intention of becoming an needed no other spur to sharpen his American citizen before the killing of wits. He pondered several days, then Carkins, there is no doubt his extradition told Anna that if he could get a cane could be brought about. used by the minister he would have a be remains a citizen of France, and the

The next day Anna went to the office of the minister. Her object was give him up, says the state department to steal his walking stick. She got to official.
the office before his arrival and waited Roy had been in this country only in an antercom, but when he came he about a year, it is said, when the crime was without a cane. Then she went was committed, and the authorities here to his residence to apply for a position and in Portsmouth, N. H., have no inforas servant. She got into the hall, mation indicating that he made any where she saw a number of caues in a effort to be naturalized. He claims stand. She also succeeded in interview. stand. She also succeeded in Interview-that absis in retaining a lawyer in Paris ing the major domo, but this inter- to defend him in case an extradition view she did not value. Then she demand is made, watched for days for the minister to enter or come out of his house to ob- however, claim to have evidence that serve what walking stick, if any, he Roy declared his citizenship intentions. used. Finally she saw him emerge for a walk, and he carried a cane. It was one with a gold head. She went again Mrs. Roy Decides to Stay at Newington. He lived all alone, and never a sout to the house on different pretended er- Portsmouth, N. H., March 5,-Glacia rands and at last succeeded in stealing Calla did not leave the home of her

That the minister seldom used a cane was evident from the fact that it was for New York. At the fast minute she decided that she could remain at her ten days before it was missed. This mother's home and be less disturbed Anna inferred, since after that time than if she went to New York. This she saw an advertisement of its loss, was decided after a consultation with Evidently the minister supposed that her counsel, John H. Bartlett. he had left it somewhere inadvertent- Mr. Bartlett was at the house Tuesloff took the cane to his workshop and Calla on other business, about a suit in a few days returned it to his daugh that is pending over a dressmaker's horizontal unless it is to be used to had been taken. the top slightly."

kill. But if it is to be so used unscrew He was accompanied by Howard O. the cane back to the minister without the house other than to step into the being connected with its return. If the minister was killed in handling it, the person who had returned it would be after the shooting Roy himself dug out hunted down. This plan was finally the bullet which prosed through the decided on: Anna in watching for the window and embedded itself in the sash minister's ingress and egress to and of the blind, and two days after, when from his home had noticed that he sheriff Collins was investigating the came and went at fixed hours. He same bullet ho'e, he tried to find the usually returned from his office at 4 built and in this he was assisted by o'clock in the afternoon and either Boy, when he searched the ground out-walked or drove out. In this he was very punctual. One day Peter water strange is the statement of Mrs. Kelhis opportunity and a few minutes bey that not one drop of blood was prior to the minister's expected return found in the house, other than that stood the cane up in a corner against found under George's head in the panhis door. When the minister returned try. and saw it he started. He was surprised and puzzled, not understanding the manner of its return. He was in such constant danger from the terrorlsts that he became at once suspicious. Of what? Simply the mys- aminations, and unpleasant local treattery attending the manner of the cano's ments, which some physicians consider return. He took it into the house and, essential in the treatment of diseases of without laying it down, went directly to the telephone to communicate with the police. This done, he threw the was unharmed. At a subsequent meeting of the terorist circle which had given the order for the assassination Peter Marienien was considered to have made an in- almost always cures. It is strictly non- Mother Goose fame was a real person? genius attempt and to have served his alcoholic, non - secret, all its ingredients turn. Being called upon for an ex- being printed on its bottle-wrapper; conplauation of his methods, he told of the stenling of the minister's cane and added; "The stick was bored; a metal flask containing a liquid was inserted which could only pour from an ortice in the of these numerous and strongest of pro a bribe or peace offering. Tals was of the kerl a year hence of a mammoth top of the flask. The flask itself was fessional endorsements of its ingredients, a pie containing the deeds of twelve steamship for the Waite Star company tubedded in a powder that would ex will be found in a pamphiet wrapped manors. Jack, wishing to "take toll" for the Southampton-New York trade. plode when the liquid touched it. This around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed could not be till the top of the cane was loosened from the orifice and the stick was placed in a horizontal posttion. When the minister threw it on non-professional testimonials, the lounge it assumed this position, and in a few seconds the explosion took tasist on knowing what they take as medplace. Those few seconds were suf-ficient to save the minister's life."

Peter and his wife Anna are now m America.

SARAH B. PARSONS.

the his poorer brother.

DEMAND ROY *************

Is Sent to Paris by Way of Washington

en Out First Papers, Can Be Brought Back, Otherwise Not, Says the State Department.

A request for the extradition of Roy, who is charged by his wife, Glacia Calla, with the murder of his brother-in-law, George A. Carkins, at Newington, N. H., was made by the United States yester-"There is no way to do the work but day. Roy is now under arrest in Paris, The papers in the case were presented "There are always more ways than to the state department Tuesday by one of doing anything. You know, my Deputy Sheriff Robert Scott of Exeter,

Washington, March 5 .- The question killing the minister without exposing on the charge of murdering George A. Anna went to her father, told him intention has been found by the authori-

It was said at the state department

French government is not likely, under the law and custom obtaining there, to

The New Hampshire state officials, mother, Mrs. John D. Kelley, at Newington yesterday, as was anticipated. The little brown man, with saw in hand,

This, if so, was fortunate. Or day afternoon, but simply to see Miss

"Give it to Peter," he said, "but tell an inventory of the furnishings to get at what had been taken when it was broken He found her at the new house making On no account permit it to become into. She was confident several things he top slightly."

Nelson of this city, state agent of the S. P. C. A., but Mr. Nelson did not enter

The Medesty of Women

Saturally makes them shrink from the Indelicate questions, the obnoxious exwomen. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all cane on a lounge and started upstairs. the annoxance and shame for nothing. He had barely left the room, placing a Thousands of women who have been brick wall between him and it, when cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescripthere was a terrific explosion, blowing out the front windows. The minister which dispeted the examinations and local treatment. There is no other medicine so the and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, tregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It tains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Huffalo, N. Y. These professional en-

The most intelligent women now-a-days icine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Proscription" is of ENOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick

FOUR GIRLS STARVED 75,000

EXTRADITION Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read What They Say.

after overything close had failed to help me, and I feel it a duty to let others know of it."

Katharine Craig, 2355
Lafayette St., Denver, ol., writes: "Thanks o Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am well, after suffering ous prestration."
Miss Marie Stolts-

sid from suppression, ligestion, and poor culation. Lydia E. well and strong."
Miss Ellen M. Olson,
of 417 N. East St., Ke-

For thirty years Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the Why don't you try it?

Young Folks

THE MAN IN THE MOON.

Is Doing.

It's a queer little story, boys and girls, But a story, they say that's troe. So listen awhile and don't you smile, And I'll tell the tale to you.

A quaint little man, all brown. Whose hair was white, whose eyes were bright.

He fived in a nearby town. Said ever a word to him, And every night 'twas the strangest sight, The oddest kind of whim.

Would go to a big wood pile, And all the long night 'twas his delight To saw that wood and smile.

And the wood pile grew and grew and

It grew so large one day
That it filled the street, blocked it up bonic plague. So that nothing could pass that way.

And rose till it touched the sky.

'Two just at the top of the pile-When, feeling quite gay, he saved away, And he never forgot to smile.

For nothing could e'er pass by.

And there on the moon he still " mains, Sawing a great wood pile. Most any night when the sky is bright You can see him saw and smile -Woman's Life.

Little Jack Horner. Do you know that Jack Horner of The story is that the abbot of Glaston- Preparations Made at Belfast Shipbury, hearing that King Henry VIII. had spoken with indignation of his entering into its composition has the full building such a kitchen as the king endorsement of those most eminent in the | could not burn down, sent his steward, several schools of medical practice. Some Jack Horner, to present the king with and thus provide himself, lifted the crust of the ple and took out the deed dorsements should have far more weight to the manor of Wells, telling the abthan any amount of the ordinary lay, or bot on his return that the king had given it to him; hence the old rhyme;

> He put in his trumb And pulled out a plum Saying, "What a brave boy am It"

A painter who fell down while he was corrying a point pot in each hand Dr. Ploree's Medical Adviser is sent free Temarkod, "I came down with fixing

DERNBURG'S STATEMENT

To the Reichstag-New Brunswick Government Is Upset-The Opposition Wins a Sweeping caused the deaths of 75,000 natives from of 417 N. East St., Kewanee, Ill., says: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of backache, side

ache, and established my periods, after the best local doctors had failed to help me."

caused the deaths of 75,000 natives from starvation. This statement was made by Colonial Secretary Dernburg in the course of the debate on the colonial budget in the Reichstag. He explained that the troops were compelled to seize ail supplies, either to feed the soldiers by Colonial Secretary Dernburg in the course of the debate on the colonial budget in the Reichstag. He explained that the troops were compelled to seize all supplies, either to feed the soldiers or weaken the enemy, with the result that 75,000 native started to death. FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. or weaken the enemy, with the result

OVERTURN IN NEW BRUNSWICK. Opposition.

Frederickton, N. B., March 5 .- The years, was overthrown in the general women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass. other constituencies. It is expected that the next premier will be J. Douglas Hazen, the leader of the opposition

WHOLE TOWN SOLD IN POLAND. A Relic of the Old Feudal Days-Owned by a Single Individual. Petersburg, March 5.-The news How He Got Up So High and What He of an interesting transfer of real estate is reported here from the government of Volbynia. The entire town of Dubno which contains about 13,000 inhabitants, has been sold by the owner, Countess. Shuvalovo to Count Offendorf, an Austrian, for $2,000,000. The transfer includes the site of the Russian fortress. ownership of a single individual since the old fendal days. It was founded in the tenth century and was once owned by a king of Poland. The fortress has been the field of many engagements and is enjoys the distinction of never having been captured during either the Consack or the Tartar invasion.

> RECEPTION BY AMBASSADOR Many Members of the French Govern-

Paris, March 5 .- The official reception of the American ambassador, Henry Wite, and Mrs. White, which pas postponed last month on account of the tragedy at Lisbon, occurred Tuesday night in the handsome residence which the ambassador has taken in Rue Francois Premier, and was distinctly a brilliant entire personnel of the embassy. Premier Clemenceau, the members of the French cabinet and other high functionaries of the government, the diplomatic corps, many celebrities in art and literature and prominent members of both French and American society were pres-

SAN FRANCISCO WAR ON RATS. 400,000 Killed to Prevent Spread of Plague.

lette of California, who is here spending a short vacation among his former colcagues in Congress, tells about the biggest rat hunt in all history. The San rancisco authorities are conducting it

200,000 and 400,000 rats," said the gov- beer, thus making a light shade. Then it covered the ground for miles ernor. "The slaughter is going on ut the burnt sleuts that has been around the rate of several thousand every week. ground is added in proportion to the The clouds were stopped, no rain was 1 000 rats, which are tested for evidence of the contagion. These weekly tests High up to the moon the little man infected rats. Of course Mr. Rat has in he city now. An occasional patient is found, as happens in Honolulu ant other places where the plague has pre-

FOR 1,000-FOOT STEAMER.

of companionableness.

PRINCESS LWOFF PARLAGHY.

Hungarian Artist Who Is Making a Sketch of President Roosevelt.

The Princess Iltina Lwoff Parlaghyby birth Hungarian and a genlus, by marriage Russian and a princess-is in this country for a few weeks before taking her way westward to the Pacific things of that sort merely as perquisites of their position. Her decorations are in recognition not of her birth, but live power, why not help the stomach of her art. Even so, they might be re- to do its work, not with drastic drugs, recent German campaign in East Africa Europe, a tribute to genius which is never granted to mere social pull.

Her unusual talent gained her when less than ten years old admission to the

PRINCESS LWOFF PAHLAGHY.

has painted the portraits of more royal but it has its limitations. and princely persons, more persons of distinction in all lines of human endeavor-statesmen, scientists, philosophers, philanthropists, lions literary and and it usually requires more than the lons artistic-than any one living. It is whom she has painted have been elderly if not actually old women. The ited with being over here now to paint she herself says not.

stand-but not a naished portrait.

Furniture Stains.

A knowledge of how to make and now the boy is proud of his large bot- tic?' apply furniture stains and varnishes tieful of pennies ready to be put in a "'Why,' said Heinz, 'didn't you say is valuable to a young housekeeper real bank. whose income is limited, for with slight practice it is often possible to affair. The receiving party included the half pound of madder and two ounces by necessity is homely only in its usage, flight with his aeroplane in Paris.

> ed wood is dry. spot, near or on a radiator, is shaken be purchased in any of the J. panese occasionally until the blood is dissolv- departments.

ed and then applied with a brush. The other mahogany stain is apt to with a view to exterminating the bu. be understood best by those who know something of mixing colors. Raw sien-"They have already killed between su is ground and then mixed with

Out of every weekly caten they select that wished and put on rather thin with a soft brush, wiping it over immediately with a piece of cotton or other soft substance.

When quite dry the surface may be medium by which the plague is conveyed oiled or varnished. Cold drawn linseed and the warfare is to be continued till oil is a good varnish or polisher. To the test shows that the pest is eradi- stain a new plece of furniture is simple work for an amateur, but success is not so certain when an old chair or table is to be renevated. However, doing over an old piece would not be difficult if it were understood that the wood will not take new stain until all the old varnish, whatever it may be, is removed. The ensiest way of getting off the tion of sal soda—that is, as much soda one of the bete noires of the moth and for prosecuting attorney." Belfast, March 5.-Harland & Wolf as can be dissolved in water. With a are building new allps here to enable the spiff scrub brush this liquid should be construction of vessels one thousand feet applied while hat so it will eat of the applied while hot, so it will eat off the surface cost. A stiff scrub brush is best for putting it on with.

> dry before the new finish is applied. Don't Get Into a Rut.

tic rut is really the victim of her own piece of tissue paper on both sides of sense of duty. She neglects her back the stockings and fasten the clasp upon hair, wears frayed shoe laces and this paper. It will not tear the holes leaves the pages of the last magazine that are the despair of a tidy woman. uncut in her determination to make her house a fit abode for her husband,

PEPSIN ALONE WILL DIGEST 3000 GRAINS OF YOUR FOOD

good as Diapepsin to cure

Indigestion and sour disordered Stomach.

coast en route for Japan and ultimately for India.

The princess is probably the most "decorated" woman in Europe outside of the ladles of the royal families, who receive orders and colonelcles and Diapensin.

Clisordered Stomach.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer of indigestion into the blood the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

A case of Pape's Diapensin costs only 50 cents at any good pharmacy, and is sufficient to give relief to old caronic sufferers, and leave some for others of the family who considered. Dispepsin.

If your stomach is lacking in diges-hydrochlorie acid.

When your food fails to digest it is from a sour stomach and dyspepsia are proof positive that some of these generally relieved five minutes after agents are woefully lacking in your diesting one Triangule of Diapepsin.

small intestines supply just what these freshen you and make you teel like life organs are calling for. These Trian- is worth living.

Tells why there is nothing so | gules of Diapepsin promptly stimulated the Gastrie glands, increasing the digostive juices, overcoming even the worst case of indigestion in a little while. Only one grain of the pure pepsin used has proven by test to digest 3,000 grains of steak, eggs and other foods. Diapepsin will give your stomach rest; it will

the family who occasionally est some-thing which does not agree with them People with weak stomachs should eat one Triangule after meals, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling garded as largely the product of social but a re-enforcement of digestive agents. like a lump of lead in the stomach, no "pull," the grateful and perhaps overcordial acknowledgment of too rare talent in the nobility were it not for the Berlin, March 5.—Apart from the lesses

"pull," the grateful and perhaps oversuch as are naturally at work in the stomach, no
heartburn, sour risinge, gas on stomach or belebing of undigested food, headaches, Dizziness or vomiting, and, betion of food requires Pepsin, Nitrasides, what you eat will not ferment Pinkham's Vegetable Berlin, March 5.—Apart from the lesses fact that many of her portraits have tion of root requires repeat, and poison your breath with nauseous compound made me sustained in nighting and by disease the been bought for the great galleries of genous ferments and the secretion of and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting dors. All these symptoms resulting valuable for an attractive setting. She manner than the setting the setting in th cannot comprehend why Rosa Jones, who went to school with her and always paid as much attention to ber clothes as she did to natural philosophy, should be the recipient of the attention of extraordinarily cultivated men who never seek her own society a second time. By and by she consoles herself with the conviction that really brainy women are shut off from most companionship because their true ion worth is misunderstood, and she sinks a little deeper into the rut that really study of us during his visit here," said has been her undoing. There's the woman also who has got that I gave him he expressed the greatinto the rut of her work. It may be est confidence in our financial, social very nice work, very interesting up to and political stability. children never received. Since then she a certain point to her fellow beings,

> Teaching Children to Save. Most children are born spendthrifts, gentle art of persuasion to influence noticeable, however, that she has them in cultivating the habit of saving. Wife in the dead of night, printed few women and that those Many methods were tried with my young son, says Sada Ballard in Good Housekeeping, but the confectionery smooth skin and shining hair, the roses store proved more entiring than trick This town is one of several in Russian and lides of youth, the purple and fine animals, banks, musical combinations Poland that has been held under the linen of wealth do not appeal to her and the general run of things held out as subjects for her brush. She is cred- to induce the small boy to heard his he stele softly from the room, pennies. At last I hit upon a happy a portrait of President Roosevelt, but expedient in a small glass far with a tening intently, heard nothing. Anxietop that screwed on. In this receptacle ty overcame her at last. She crept to "I do not expect to paint M. le Presi- the pennies were discernible and get- the stairway, leaned over the balusdent," she says. "I have not time to at able, so that in keeping track of how trade and called: do it even if he had time to give me many he had the child learned to sittings. I hope to make a sketch of count. Then he took great delight in "Well, what is it?" her husband's him-for my own pleasure, you under- saving to see how many the bottle voice replied. It came not from below, would hold. When it was full a larger | but from above. bottle was provided, with the contents " "What on earth," said Mrs. Wienerof the small bottle for a nest egg, and schnitzel, 'are you doing up in the at-

The Japanese Towel. make artistic pieces of furniture out | American women have liked the little of plain white wood chairs, tables, etc. Japanese towels ever since they were loonist, was talking in Toledo about In making very dark coloring a introduced in this country. This home Henry Farman's recent marvelous of logwood chips should be boiled for the prints are pretty, resembling "The aeropiane will some day rule gently for an hour in a gallon of wa- some splendld stenell effects. If a num- the air," he said. "Modern invention ter. This should then be strained and ber are whipped together, they make makes this probable, particularly the applied to the wood while hot. It the neutest kind of a couch cover; two invention of motors that are at once should be put on evenly with a flat serve for a roomy pillow cover; one very light and very powerful. brush. The finish requires a pearl ash folded makes a laundry bag; they are "What a useful thing modern invensolution that is made by putting two neat for the dresser, washstand or buf- tion is," said Mr. Beachy, with a laugh. drams of the ash into a quart of wa- fet. The towel is a yard in length and "I know, for instance, a Toledo man looks like a good quality of cheese- denly the other night. For a light shade two ounces of cloth, and the stencil effect is made in bruised dragon's blood are put lute a blue, green and red, and often a little bottle with a quart of turpentine. The | black is seen. One can get them in the Washington, March 5.—Governor Gil jar is corked and placed in a warm department stores, but they can always in a sawmill.

> To Make Wrinkled Sleaves. The amateur in making her own lin- snore." gerie waist will have trouble with the sleeves. She will be uncertain upon the long wrinkled sleeve, and should she decide upon the long wrinkled will say when making nominating sleeve she will scarcely know how to speeches in political conventions, says make the sleeve wrinkle as it should. the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Bill Ir-There should be many tiny little folds win, chief clerk in the secretary of laid side by side, evenly and with state's office, who knows more anecmethod, and extending down right to dotes probably than any other man in the knuckles, where there is a wired the state, tells one concerning a nomipoint.

> > A Practical Gift.

celved by a recent bride was a set of wept because there were no more suchers just the size for closet shelves, worlds to conquer. Caesar had his trunks, cedar chests and bureau draw- Brutus and Charles L his Cromwell. ers. They were made of fine sheer Napoleon overran Europe, remarged flowered batiste, with wide hems all Asia, divorced his beloved wife, Joaround. Each has one side left open sephine, and died an exile upon the for refilling. The filling was cotton lonely shores of St. Helena. Therebatting rolled in sandalwood sawdust, fore, gentlemen, I nominate Sam Clark a delight to the human nose.

To Protect Silk Stockings. In these days of low shoes and thin stockings it is most discouraging for a Then the article must be allowed to woman to find that her taut bese supporters have ruined her only pair of silk stockings at the first wearing. When the stocking supporters are fas-The woman who sinks into a domes- tened to stockings, put a small twofold

For Finger Bowls. then derents her own end by her lack A woman with a mild manin for things Japanese had little wicker bask-There's the woman who gets into an els placed before each guest when finTHE SCRAP BOOK

Why He Climbed.

Max Goldberger, author of "The Land of Unlimited Possibility," is a firm believer in America's future and has molded all Germany to his opin-

"Mr. Goldberger made a thorough a Milwaukee banker. "At a dinner "He said that everything pointed upward, and the signs of prosperity were as easy to read in America as the signs of something else were easy to read in Heinz Wienerschnitzel. "Heinz Wienerschnitzel, he explain ed, with a smile, was awakened by his "'Heinz! Heinz!" she whimpered, 'wake up! There's a burglar downstairs! I hear him? "Heinz was out of bed in an instant. "'Hist!" he said.

"And slipping on shoes and trousers, "Some time passed. The wife, lis-

""Heinz!"

the burglar was downstairs?"

Phonographic Preof. Lincoln Beachy, the well known bal-

ter. This is not applied until the stain- fifteen inches in width. The material who started the phonograph going sud-"His wife looked up from her book. "'What kind of a record is that?"

she cried. 'It sounds like a dog fight "It is your own record,' said the busband triumphantly. I set the machine on you last night in your sleep. Now maybe you'll believe that you

The Political Orator. There is little telling what some men nating speech by George Kleinpeter.

an attorney at Cerroliton. "Gentlemen." he began, "Alexander One of the most practical gifts re- the Great conquered the world and

The Old Standby By its time-tested merits, its uniform success, prompt ac-tion and clean taste, Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar has become the standard ended as a safe, simple and effective remedy For Coughs & Colds

All Druggists

remedy of its kind. Recon

of Horehound and Tar

Miss Lillian Ross, 550
East 84th Street, New York, writes: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetahle Compound overcame irregularities, periodic suffering, and nervous headaches,
after overything else

man, of Laurel, In., writes: "I was in a run-lowncondition and suf-

"Poison is the only means for doing Carkins at Newington, N. H., it is be and has positively cured thousands of Liberal Government Is Upset by the to indicate that he had expressed such periodic pains, backache, that bear-liberal government of New Brunswick ing-down feeling, flatulency, indiges- which has been continued in office under tion, dizziness, ornervous prostration. one form or another for twenty-five Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick elections held throughout the province

ment Attend.

"There are very few cases of plague

ard. long, as a preparatory step to the laying

DR. T. Felix Gouraud's Orier'al Gream or a agical Beautifler.

a Skin of Beauty is a ver Foreve The Hindres.

The Hindres

The